- Professor is extremely knowledgeable about metallurgy. He often connected class to real world examples which really helped in overall understanding. I also really appreciated him writing out examples and giving ample time to complete homework assignments.
- I liked how enthusiastic the professor was about the course material. It made learning more fun.
- Fantastic class and professor
- Dr. Shi is well versed in the material he teaches, and he is able to make the content interesting to learn. Sometimes the way he presents the tables in class can be messy, but he does a good job explaining his methodology and its relevance to other material in the class. I recommend this class to other students interested in the material.
